ABOUT ME

My name is Shram, and I was born in 1998 in Halabja. I successfully completed my education in Halabja, attending public schools until Grade 9. After passing the STS exam at United Science Schools, I was admitted as a graduate student and continued my studies until I completed high school. I then pursued higher education at Sulaimani University, where I earned a degree in Information Technology. In addition to my academic background, I am fluent in English and Turkish, with strong speaking and writing skills. I also have basic knowledge of Arabic. Over the years, I have gained valuable experience working with several local and international companies, further enhancing my professional expertise.
